A Conversation with Dr. Joan Franklin Smutny

Joan Franklin Smutny is founder and director of the Center for Gifted, a Northern Illinois University Partner. She directs programs for thousands of bright, talented, gifted children in the Chicago area annually. She also teaches creative writing in many of these programs as well as courses on gifted education for graduate students at the university level. She is editor of the Illinois Association for Gifted Children Journal, contributing editor of Understanding Our Gifted, and a regular contributor to the Gifted Education Communicator, Parenting for High Potential, and the Gifted Education Press Quarterly. She is the author of 18 books and the recipient of the NAGC Distinguished Service Award for outstanding contribution to the field of gifted education. Please join us in welcoming Dr. Smutny on November 2nd at 7:00pm.
